Re: Provisional Ballots under the Plan in Eastern Livestock Co., LLC

You recently received a notice about the plan proposed by the Trustee for Eastern Livestock Co., LLC explaining that the Disclosure Statement had been approved and the Plan was being sent to creditors to allow them to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Under the Plan, only creditors in Classes 1 and 4 may vote on the Plan. Class 4 is the claims of general unsecured creditors.

According to the claims record in the bankruptcy case, when you filed your claim, you checked a box on the claim form that stated you held a secured claim or a priority unsecured claim. The Trustee disagrees that your claim is either secured or entitled to priority status and will be filing an objection to your claim contesting its secured or priority status, though not necessarily the amount of the claim.

If the Trustee's objection is upheld by the Court, your claim may be reclassified as a Class 4 general unsecured claim. So that you have an opportunity to vote on the Plan as a potential general unsecured creditor, the Trustee is sending you the enclosed provisional ballot to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Trustee is also enclosing a return envelope that you can use to return the filled-out ballot to counsel to the Trustee at: Trustee for Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, c/o Faegre Baker Daniels, LLP, Attention: Terry E. Hall, 300 North Meridian Street, Suite 2700, Indianapolis, IN 46204. Provisional Ballots should be postmarked no later than November 28, 2012.

A copy of the Disclosure Statement and Plan is enclosed with this letter and the provisional ballot. You should read the Disclosure Statement and Plan in their entirety before voting.

Note – returning a provisional ballot will not affect any right you have to continue to assert that your claim is secured or that your claim is entitled to priority should the Trustee object to your claim.
